Division Contest Thursday

Andrew Greenstein & Justin Montandon to represent 1066

After sweeping the recent Area 16 International Speech and Table Topics Contests, Andrew Greenstein, ATM and Justin Montandon move on Thursday evening to a tougher challenge, the Central Division Contests at the Rollins College Bush auditorium. Orlando Conquerors had fourteen members and guests

February 20th at the Area competition, and our two warriors are hoping for an even greater turn-out Thursday night to root them on.

Our president, Debbie Piccirello will serve as the Contest Master, and Paul Twyford will be the Chief Judge. The event begins at 6:00 PM. If you show up to serve as a functionary or to simply to support our contestants, you will be entered into a drawing to win a $50 gift card to Dexters. Be sure to check in with Debbie at the event. Be there to support Andrew and Justin as they advance up the ladder of competition, and maybe win a nice door prize.

St. Patty's Theme Meeting March 17

Lynda Miller set to work her magic in another big extravaganza

You never know what to expect with a Lynda Miller theme meeting! Halloween Spookfests, Valentines Day Love-Ins, Installation Banquets, our club's 50th Anniversary Celebration with 130 in attendance, and many other classics you can revisit at any regular meeting by perusing our club photo albums. Lynda is a past president and two-time winner of the 1066 Cameron Lusk Toastmaster of the Year Award.

Next Monday will be her latest production, a St. Patrick's Day theme meeting that you won't want to miss. Wear green, and be seen! This should be fun!

"Notable Quotes" - March 10, 2008

"If Bruce had fallen on his face and hurt himself, at least we're in a Church so we could pray for his recovery" – Scott Hoehn, DTM, during his evaluation, commenting on Bruce Gould's demonstration of a sporting device.

"I lead strictly by FEAR" – Brad Nemcik's humorous Table Topic response to a question about his leadership style.

"The 50/50 raffle could save your life!" – Club Treasurer Andrew Greenstein, ATM reasoned that "by purchasing a 50/50 ticket, part of the funds goes to the Earl K Wood scholarship fund, which may go to a medical student, who may become the doctor that saves your life one day."

"None of us can compare to the finesse of Richard Gere, except for maybe Bruce Gould." – Brad Satill, speaking to the men in the room about secrets for maintaining the interest of their significant others.

"Flowers for your girlfriend, the best 10 bucks you'll ever spend! It might get you an extra hour at poker night on a Wednesday." -Brad Satill, from his speech on "what makes women tick."

"Leadership is like a string, if you push it, it doesn't move very well, but if you pull the string, it will follow easily." - Barbara Bergstrom, DTM, from her table topic on Effective Leadership Qualities.

Toastmaster Chatter

● Kudos – To Barbara Bergstrom, DTM for speaking to the Adventures in Christian Writing Group, and to Brad Satill, for judging an event for the Future Business Leaders of America! Your service within the community on behalf of our club is an outstanding representation of the leadership and communication skills that we, the Conquerors, are renowned for.

● Toastmaster of the Week – Treasurer Andrew Greenstein, ATM has been named 1066 Toastmaster of the Week by president Debbie Piccirello. Andrew not only stepped up to serve when Greg Minor moved out of the area, but is currently streamlining all of the processes for future Treasurers. Congratulations and thank you Andrew! The previous week’s winner of this award was Karl Righter for his efforts in producing our first weekly newsletter.

● Dues still due – At only $45 per term, there’s no better educational value anywhere!
Pay Treasurer Andrew Greenstein, ATM by April 1st.

● A ‘fine’ contest – Looks like Mitesh Smart and Bernie Manuel are having a little bet going to see who gets the most "AHs" at a meeting.
