Scott Hoehn, DTM, VP/PR & Editor

Monday Night's meeting theme is: "ARE YOU READY FOR SOME FOOTBALL?" With the return of the NFL season and college football, what a great time to celebrate, party and enjoy some delicious pizza! Wear your team colors!!! Wear your favorite team jersey, college, pro, even some other sport. There will be trivia, prizes, and lots of fun.

We still need two evaluators, an ah counter, timer, and grammarian. Let John Todero or Bruce Gould, DTM know if you can step up and help the team. Let's have a great meeting! As always, let Sheldon Kagel know if you want to eat!

Speak now, join later!

Two icebreakers just slightly ahead of their time Monday!

With no Membership VP on hand to sign them up, Joanna Frazier and Alex Garcia decided "why wait?" "We'll speak now and join later!" Anxious to get started in their basic manuals, Joanna and Alex delivered excellent icebreakers to an appreciative crowd Monday night, with Joanna winning Best Speaker and the Bullseye Awards! Also, kudos to President Brad Satill for stepping in at the last minute and rounding out the program with a fine impromptu speech about the economy. Great meeting, and a lively post mortem at the Last Word.

Humor & Evaluation contests set for August 25th

The date for the Annual Humorous Speech and Evaluation Contests is August 25. These exciting contests are starting to fill up with contestants, so you better throw your hat into the ring quickly. The winners and runners-up in both contests will represent 1066 at the upcoming Area 32 contests. Let John Todero know if you would like to enter one or both of these contests. These competitions are a great way to sharpen your humor and evaluation skills.

Toastmaster Chatter

• Family time! It's always nice to have moral support when you give your icebreaker. Alex Garcia's sister Maria provided his Monday and expressed interest in joining 1066.

• New Sergeant-at-Arms! With Bernie Manuel unable to continue as SAA, new member Felipe Millon stepped forward to take on this important role. Thanks Felipe for being a team player!

Just in time for our Football themed meeting Monday, the best of past FSU/Florida fan rivalry barbs:

- What is the difference between the Taliban and the Gators? The Taliban has a running game!
- How do you make FSU cookies? Put the batter in a bowl and pound for 60 minutes!
- A news report said that Florida is only dressing 26 for Saturday's game. The rest of the team can apparently dress themselves.
- What do you say to an FSU football player in a three-piece suit? "Will the defendant please rise!"
- Our new city commissioner was a tackling dummy at FSU.
- What do you call a drug ring in Tallahassee? A huddle.
- A Seminole, a Gator, and a Cornhusker are riding in a car? Who's driving? The sheriff!
- What does a Seminole learn at Freshman orientation? His Miranda Rights.
- What four-letter word do FSU grads hurl at Gator grads on game day? "Boss!"
- Ask a Gator what is the difference between grass and Astro turf and he'll probably reply, "I dunno, I've never smoked Astro turf."

Conclusion: There's a difference between avid fans and rabid fans.
