Subject: Conqueror Weekly - November 2, 2009 - Four new members!

November 2, 2009

Karl Richter, DTM, Editor

1066 welcomes four new members!

New Conquerors members Marlee Ward, David Toro, Steve Jamba, and Tina Chestnut

Every six months, 1066 loses a few members at dues renewal time, but history shows that we quickly make up those losses in the ensuing weeks.

Monday night, history repeated itself as 1066 added four new Toastmasters to our great club. Marlee Ward, the owner of Rx MD Marketing solutions, has hit the ground running, already having served in recent weeks as a functionary twice, and scheduled to give her Icebreaker this coming Monday! David Toro, a professional math tutor, gave his Icebreaker this past Monday.

New member Steve Jamba, General Manager of Rossi's Pizza & Pasta, comes with a Toastmaster legacy as the son of Past District 47 Governor Jack Jamba, DTM, who served in 1999–2000. We also welcome Tina Chestnut, a Marketing Administrator with Holiday Inn Vacations at Orange Lake Resort.

"My skinny jeans!" - Brenda DeArmond, DTM, volunteering to bring an auction item for our White Elephant sale on November 23

"Kick that rut in the butt!" - Enon Winkler's attention-getting title to his speech Monday

"...by the swimmers being swept out to sea!" - Michael Tuazon, answering the question "how can you see where a rip current is at the beach?"
